Description

With great attention to detail, this property was extensively renovated and extended in 2008, so that a small simple finca became a modern country house. Via the private parking space above the house, it is only a few steps to the entrance area of the house on the second floor. On this level is the master bedroom with private bathroom and a small dressing room. One floor further down, on the first floor, there is the large living room with large window elements and an open fireplace, a semi-open kitchen with adjoining dining room, a sleeping alcove above the dining room and another bedroom with its own bathroom. From all rooms you can enjoy the beautiful view of the sea, the village and the mountains. Outside there are two storage rooms, a covered terrace right next to the living room and some open terraces. The garden is mainly planted with low-maintenance plants and offers many possibilities to realize new ideas.

Location

The village of Galilea, one of the most beautiful mountain villages of Mallorca, is located at an altitude of about 400m and offers a wonderful view of the Mediterranean Sea to the south. The surroundings are characterized by the beautiful nature, the mountains and the forests. There are some very nice cafes and restaurants in the village and is therefore also a popular destination. To the island's capital Palma de Mallorca is just 20 minutes by car and to the airport about 30 minutes by car.
